POPE FRANCIS GENERAL AUDIENCE

Wednesday, 22 March 2017

Dear Brothers and Sisters: In our continuing catechesis on Christian hope, today we reflect on two words used by St Paul in the opening reading: steadfastness and encouragement. Paul says that both are contained in the message of the Scriptures, but even more, that ours is a God of steadfastness and encouragement (cf. Rom 15:4-5). In the Christian life, we are called to spread hope by supporting and encouraging one another, especially those in danger of faltering. But we do so with the strength provided by the Lord, who is our unfailing source of hope. Faithful to the Apostle's injunction, may we always live in harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus (v. 5).

REMINDER—NO CAR PARKING in BISHOP WORDSWORTH SCHOOL

St Osmund's has received a complaint from Bishop Wordsworth School that parishioners attending Mass have continued to use their car park, even though this kind offer of the parking space has had to be withdrawn. Action will have to be taken if this unauthorised use continues. On Sunday mornings St Osmund's School is available for parking.

BWS CAR PARK IS NOT OPEN TO ANYONE ATTENDING MASS AT ST OSMUND'S.

PARKING AVAILABLE AT ST OSMUND'S SCHOOL

On Sundays is only during Mass and cars should be removed immediately after Mass to allow for the car park to be locked. Many thanks.

WEEKLY GUIDE TO PRAYER

Sunday is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This week is a great preparation for our journey with Jesus more deeply into the mystery of self-giving love. "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

The first reading this week is from Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians. Paul is defending himself. He tells the people of Corinth and us not to receive the grace of God in vain. Paul reminds them about generosity and cheerful giving. He begs the community not to dismiss him because of his poor speaking abilities saying, "Even if I am untrained in speaking, I am not so in knowledge." He boasts about his weakness, which he had at first begged to be freed from by the Lord, who said to him, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness."

We have ended our readings from Mark for this Liturgical Year and take up the Gospel of Matthew, which will be part of our readings for the rest of the year. In the Sermon on the Mount Jesus calls us beyond simply being moral. His message is not an 'Eye for an eye,' but turning the other cheek, loving our enemies and praying for them. Jesus warns us about performing good deeds for others to see. He teaches us to pray simply, because our Father knows what we need. "Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and decay destroy, and thieves break in and steal.... For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." Focus on God, not the world: "No one can serve two masters... You cannot serve God and mammon."
