CONFESSIONS at 10 a.m. Sacred Heart

Saint Peter Julian Eymard: born in La Mure, France, Peter became a parish priest in 1834. He fostered Eucharistic Adoration through his life. He founded a religious order of priest-adorers of the Holy Eucharist who came to be known as the Priests of the Blessed Sacrament. Come to Adoration at Sacred Heart from 5pm on Thursdays even for 10 minutes 🙏

Praying for Ukraine. Praying for Ukraine. The question has been raised why our bidding prayers focus on the war in Ukraine, rather than the many other conflicts around the world, such as in Gaza. Of course we pray for peace throughout the whole world, wherever there is war.

The war in Ukraine is the largest conflict in Europe since World War 2, and engages the strategic interests of NATO and Russia in a way that risks a serious escalation that would directly affect this country. Our bidding prayers reflect this, and also the many links within our Parish with people there. But we will make a point of varying this from time to time and including other conflicts.

While Monday's rosary is specifically for the Ukraine, those of us who are there do add other countries and intentions as well. Father Jonathan

Missio and World Mission Sunday (October 20th)

Pope Pius XI instituted World Mission Sunday in 1926 as an initiative of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, one of the four Pontifical Mission Societies. The following year, the first worldwide collection took place, and ever since, it has been a day of universal solidarity. Held globally on the next-to-last Sunday in October every year, World Mission Sunday is a unique effort for the entire Church to provide help for over 1,100 dioceses, and particularly to offer practical help to the poor through local churches and their witness to Christ. The day of prayer and giving, date back to 19th-century France, when Blessed Pauline Jaricot asked her friends to pray daily for the missions and give a penny a week.
