Youth group trip to Queen of Martyrs & St Ignatius Church

On Saturday 30th August, a minibus full of youth driven by Father Joseph left Salisbury for a day's adventure. Simultaneously cars came from Tisbury with more youth! We visited the secret Mass chamber in the loft with its very old wall paintings, the sacristy including artefacts from penal times including a priest's travelling altar, with its true purpose hidden. The church is a true gem and we heard more of its history as Father Joseph celebrated Mass, remembering the seven Chideock martyrs who died between 1587 to 1642. It was a fitting day to be there as it was the memorial of three other Martyrs- Margeret Clitherow, Anne Line and Margaret Ward. We completed our visit to this beautiful Chapel by venerating the relics of St Thomas More, St Edmund Campion, St Cuthbert Maine, the true Cross and Ven Thomas Pilchard. We walked to the beach at Seatown after our picnic lunch in the Museum and spent some time on the blustery beautiful beach before returning home.

SECOND COLLECTION- Education Sunday: we celebrate Catholic education and give thanks to our forefathers for the sacrifices they made to build our schools, to our teachers & governors for their dedication and service and for the education that we, and/or our children, may have received. Bishop Bosco is appealing for more people to answer the call he made in May for new school governors. More volunteers are urgently needed so please consider offering yourself for this important ministry.

Contact bill.mcentee@cliftondiocese.com for further information or if you would like to apply.
