ORDINARY TIME WEEK 15(B)

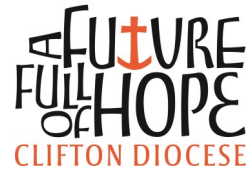

From Father Anthony...

I went to a little spot I know. I sat against a tree and listened to running water and the haunting cry of Cathedral peregrines. Bells halved the hour; children shrieked and laughed. An ice cream van tinkled in the distance. White puffy clouds moved across the horizon and a light breeze searched for what hair I have left. On the opposite bank a couple came along hand in hand, smiling and chatting animatedly. He made to sit down on the bank but she pulled him along and pointed. He nodded and they sat down on a bench.

The awareness of Christ within brings with it a sense of, 'what we are not'. We sense a 'new person' emerging who must leave the 'old person' behind. Old ways of thinking and feeling cannot express the emerging new person we feel we are. St Paul knew this, '.... put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, and be renewed in the spirit of your minds; put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness'. (Eph 4.22-24). We must learn to think and feel from a new perspective; from the perspective of Christ within.

Christ has toured the villages of our heart – the 'deceitful desires' that motivate the 'old person'. He reveals how to correct them so that the 'new person' may emerge. He 'summons' the faculties of the mind (the twelve). We must learn that they work best in pairs, balancing and strengthening the other - faith and strength, judgment and love, power and imagination, understanding and will, order and passion, denial and acceptance. Next, we learn to operate in the light of His being (ἐξουσία, authority – 'out of his being'). We learn to depend on Christ (staff)... not on our old ways (no bread, haversack or coppers). Then, clothed only in Christ (tunic) we follow in the footsteps of His understanding (sandals).

As we encounter desires (primary motivators) we 'stay' with them until we can think from and about them with His mind! If old ways of thinking are too strong (dust)... shake them off and move on. Don't fight them. There will be another time. Like the couple, we use the interaction of thought to maintain focus on Christ - who does the work in us - and not on problems.
