ORDINARY TIME WEEK 26 (B)

From Father Anthony...

Powder blue sky, thumbed with orange, glowed in early morning sunlight. It was refreshingly cool: Autumn has almost closed the door on summer! Henrietta danced and clucked as, tea in hand, I drank in the rusting garden. Plants cut back last year, had come back to life, flowered beautifully and now, with natural grace and elegance, bowed their limbs to be pruned back again. A brutal business; I felt sad and reluctant. Yet, miraculously, they'll come back stronger and more colourful next year.

To grow spiritually we have to cut back on all that ties us to our old, comfortable ways so as to ascend to higher understandings. The spur to do this is often when we feel overgrown; when we experience life as stale and unfulfilling. The spiritual law is that we make the first move, i.e. intend to leave the old behind and live differently. As we practice this along the horizontal plane of everyday life, our intention causes us to ascend the vertical, spiritual plane. Leaving the known and comfortable makes us vulnerable, childlike but... God descends to meet us (puts spiritual arms around us). We experience the worlds of heaven and earth meeting within us... we hit the mark!

This is the correct use of our creative ability (hand), of contacting and navigating the world (feet): the correct use of our understanding (eye). Of course, like fearful children we often run back to our safe, comfortable old ways (miss the mark). It is this that the gospel refers to when it tells us to cut off various limbs; obviously, it does not want us to do that. The hand, for example, is the tenth letter of the Hebrew alphabet (hands create); it represents our creative ability or, the consciousness from which thinking and ideas emerge. If we use this ability to remain trapped in old ways of being; if we don't use it to ascend then, we miss the mark (sin). This deprives us of God so... cut it off, change it. In other words, repent it, correct it.

We are never asked to do violence to ourselves. We are asked to put ourselves in a position where God can come and love us: where He can take us from the old and dreary (hell) to new inner landscapes of understanding and love. From there we will flower fully into the beautiful being we truly are.

HOLY REDEEMER CHURCH

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT FROM LAST WEEK

The Saturday evening 6pm Vigil Mass and the 10am Wednesday morning Mass have now resumed at Holy Redeemer Church. There are still longer term issues and costs which the Quinquennial Team are working on and Fr Anthony will report when he has more detail.

SAINTS MICHAEL, GABRIEL AND RAPHAEL, ARCHANGELS 29 SEPTEMBER

Each of the archangels performs a different mission in Scripture: Michael protects; Gabriel announces; Raphael guides. Earlier belief that inexplicable events were due to the actions of spiritual beings has given way to a scientific world-view and a different sense of cause and effect. Yet believers still experience God's protection, communication and guidance in ways which defy description. For more, please click on the image in the 'Top News' box or click here.

World Day of Migrants and Refugees 2021 Sunday 26 September.

On our website we have a message from Pope Francis 'Towards an ever wider We' and also a video of Bishop Paul McAleenan, the Lead Bishop for Migrants and Refugees discussing Pope Francis' message and much more. Click on the image in the 'Top News' box or click here.

CAFOD Harvest Family Fast Day 2021 - Climate Crisis Appeal

Harvest Family Fast Day is this coming Friday 1 October. This year, CAFOD is raising money for its Climate Crisis Appeal. CAFOD works with local experts to help people around the world to adapt to the changing climate and protect our common home. If you wish to donate, CAFOD envelopes will be available in all our churches this weekend. For the promotion video and other ways to donate please click on the image in the 'Top News' box or click here.
