ORDINARY TIME WEEK 13(B)

From Father Anthony...

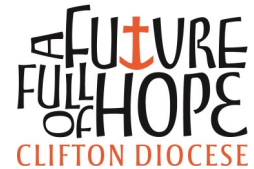

The longest day. It rained and rained and never a sight of the sun! People moved dejectedly along the streets, heads bowed, hatted and umbrellaed. Watery light sparkled off slippery roads; tyres squished. Evening seemed to come sooner... not later. And yet nature thrived. Gone, the dusty heat and parched, limp forms. Trees and plants dripped water like fountains and stretched their limbs; colours bright and vibrant. Sneezy air gave way to the intoxicating scent of ozone. Rain brought rejuvenation and healing... and the Gunslinger peppered it all with beautiful song!

We spoke about the move from awareness of Things to Thinker and the difficult encounter with Thought, in between: of often experiencing this encounter as distraction in prayer, meditation or life in general. It actually has a positive outcome. It makes us aware that we are incomplete and cannot 'do it' alone; we need to find and rouse Christ who sleeps in the 'bows of our being'.

This week's gospel outlines initial outcomes when Christ is 'roused'. Jairus - from – אור means to shine and to flow. Spiritually, it is when we begin to awaken. The light within us (Christ) begins to flow. Our spiritual soul (the daughter) that appeared to be dead or dying is, in fact, only dormant and inactive. We touch the realm of spirit and come alive within. Now we can rise above our disordered, jeering thoughts (the crowds). From an animated soul we become a life giving spirit (1 Cor 15:45).

Another outcome of Christ's life giving healing is outlined in the story of the woman who had a haemorrhage for twelve long years. In earthly terms she could not give birth. In spiritual terms our spiritual faculties (twelve years) are dysfunctional and unaligned: they are unable to understand spirit and produce spiritual fruit. They need to be completed in Christ (touch his hem). We might experience this as a feeling of 'having something to do in life' but not sure of what it is or how to get started. We might feel a persistent sense that there is something missing in life; an acute realisation that everything is withering and fading. With Christ we are freed from this complaint.

Jairus, the Daughter and the Woman also represent stages of our own development. Let's take great heart. If life seems dull, irreparable or dead... all is not lost! Christ is only a touch away.

ALBERT LAWES' ORDINATION TO THE PRIESTHOOD

Albert Lawes' Ordination to the Priesthood is taking place tomorrow 12 noon (Friday 25 June) in Plymouth Cathedral. You can join the Ordination Mass online - by going to our Church TV page or by clicking here. In addition you will be able to join his first Mass on Saturday 26 June at 10am at the place - simply scroll down. The Masses will remain as recordings afterwards if you are unable to join 'live'. Albert will be coming to celebrate his first Masses in Salisbury on Sunday 18 July. Please keep him in your prayers at this very important time.

SAINTS PETER AND PAUL, APOSTLES (29 JUNE)

Saints Peter and Paul are the principle pillars of the Church founded by Christ. Saint Peter was chosen by Christ to be his first Vicar on earth; he was endowed with powers of the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Saint Paul was chosen by Christ himself on the road to Damascus (Acts 9:1-16). Selected to bring Christ's name to all peoples (Acts 9:15); he is the greatest missionary of all time. For more and a reflection by Bishop Robert Barron, please click on the image in the 'Top News' box or click here

This feast day which, in normal times would be a Holy Day of Obligation is being celebrated at three Masses on Tuesday 29 June: 10:00 St Osmund, 12:00 Holy Redeemer and 19:00 St Gregory. Please book to attend in the usual way.

SAINT OLIVER PLUNKETT (1 JULY)

Oliver Plunkett, a 17th-century Irish martyr, became Ireland's first new saint in nearly 700 years being canonised in 1975. He was a Catholic Priest found guilty of high treason for 'promoting the Roman faith' and sentenced to death on July 1, 1681. For the story of this great saint click on the image in the 'Top News' box or click here.

FEAST OF SAINT THOMAS, APOSTLE (3 JULY)

Poor Thomas! He made one remark and has been branded as 'Doubting Thomas' ever since. But if he doubted, he also believed. He made what is certainly the most explicit statement of faith in the New Testament: "My Lord and My God!" and, in so expressing his faith, gave Christians a prayer that will be said till the end of time. For the story of Saint Thomas click on the image in the 'Top News' box or click here.

Peter's Pence Collection this Sunday 27 June

This annual collection unites us in solidarity to the Holy See and its works of charity to those in need. Your generosity allows the Pope to respond to our suffering brothers and sisters with promptness, love, and compassion. For more on this collection click on the image in the 'Top News' box or click here. Envelopes are available in each of our churches labelled 'Peter's Pence'.

Stress in Your Marriage? – Retrouvaille is a program for married couples that feel bored, disillusioned, frustrated, or angry in their marriage. Some experience coldness. Others experience conflict in their relationship. Most don't know how to change the situation or even communicate with their spouse about it. This programme has helped 6,000 couples who were experiencing difficulties in their marriage in the past year. There is no group therapy or group work. For confidential information about 'Retrouvaille' or to register for the programme commencing with a Virtual weekend on 1 – 4 July 2021.

Call or text 0788 7296983 or 0797 3380443 - or Email retrouvailleukinfo@gmail.com or visit www.retrouvaille.org.uk

Don't lose courage, don't lose hope

His Beatitude Patriarch Pierbattista Pizzaballa made a pastoral visit to the Christian Community in the Gaza Strip. For four days, the Bishop of Jerusalem and his delegation saw ruined infrastructures and heard agonising stories of the Gazan Christians. The Bishop of Jerusalem's visit was aimed to express closeness and offer encouragement to Palestinian Christians, who not only endured psychological traumas during the May war and bombardments, but also had their properties destroyed. We have a short video and the full text detailing the visit, Click on the image in the 'Top News' box or click here.

Retreat with Mgr John Armitage

We have the next two of twelve talks in a retreat given by Mgr John Armitage in April 2020. The fifth talk is called 'The Trial in the Desert' and the sixth talk is called 'From Drifting to Searching'. There are notes for each talk. To watch the talks just click on the 'Armitage Retreat' button on our homepage or click here.

The God Who Speaks We have a three minute reflection by Fr Paul Vu on the gospel for the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time, 'Finding Healing and Peace in Jesus'. To listen click here or click on 'The God Who Speaks' button on our homepage.

Sunday Homily by Bishop Robert Barron. In our Gospel this Sunday today, we find two stories tensely intertwined - and both contain great suffering and great healing. Through this passage, we are reminded that even in the midst of confusion and frustration with God, we are called to trust in the Lord and his timing. To listen click on the 'Sunday Homily' button on our homepage or click here.

Children's Liturgy - from Catholic Kids Media. Miracles! A fun Catholic reflection for kids based on the readings for 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Cycle B and also from Redemptorist Publications there will be a video of the week's Gospel reading, a reflection and a final prayer (from Friday evening onwards) To view, click on 'Church TV' then select 'Children's Liturgy' or click here.
