ORDINARY TIME WEEK 4(B)

From Father Anthony...

It was a bright, blue day, air crisp with a tinge of moisture. I could smell the ozone and it was so nice to feel the sun. I walked beside the canal. Swans unzipped the water with natural grace, heads elegantly bowed. I passed shops, open and closed; people's eyes, above colourful masks, seemed happier. But, sitting against a shop wall was a figure covered in blankets, head down. A lady came up and handed him a hot drink and some sandwiches. For a moment their faces met and bloomed into beautiful smiles. It was a holy moment: compassion, given and accepted.

When we really desire and intend a better way, Christ will enter our lives (synagogue). We will hear a new teaching. He will teach through our mind and heart with authority. The Greek word ἐξουσία, eksousía literally means out from, being. In other words, He does not teach from books, from theories or rituals but out of the very essence of His being united to the Father. This teaching makes a great impression, i.e. His being is impressed on ours; we are one. We feel His teaching as ours; it is straight from God.

In our inner being He leads us to Capernaum: from Kaphar (village) and Nachum (comfort)... village of comfort or covering of compassion. In the synagogue of our lives Christ encounters those areas of mind where we still think that we can find satisfaction through the material world and the sensations of the flesh (unclean spirits). Deep down we know the world can't satisfy us (we know who you are) but, on our own, without a guide, we constantly lapse into old ways, i.e. trying to solve our problems with the same thinking that caused them in the first place (as Einstein said); it leaves us unfulfilled and miserable. As we allow Christ to journey within, He comforts (renews) our mind with His. As His mind becomes ours it banishes (be quiet) the old tormenting ways, leaving us amazed (they were astonished) and rejuvenated.

Once we have experienced this healing compassion; once we experience a real change in mind and heart (repentance) we begin to trust and have confidence in Him (his reputation spread). We rapidly allow Him to 'travel' to all the corners of our mind (through all the Galilean countryside) healing and making us whole... now, being healed we know how to heal.

THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD 2 FEBRUARY

In obedience to the Old Law, the Lord Jesus, the first-born, was presented in the Temple by his Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph. This is another 'epiphany' celebration insofar as the Christ Child is revealed as the Messiah through the canticle and words of Simeon and the testimony of Anna the prophetess. Christ is the light of the nations, hence the blessing and the normal procession of candles on this day. For more, click on the image in the 'Top News' box or click here.

SAINT AGATHA 5 FEBRUARY

From her very early years, the notably beautiful Agatha dedicated her life to God. She became a consecrated virgin, a state in life where young women choose to remain celibate and give themselves wholly to Jesus and the Church in a life of prayer and service.
