From Father Robert: Various people have kindly transported me when necessary. We have now got to the stage where the GP has said it would be sensible if I stopped driving altogether for the time being. This means I shall need more transport or cut out some visits. RM

We recently had minor vandalism in Sacred Heart. The more often you pop in to say a prayer, perhaps when shopping, regularly will help prevent that.

We need more volunteers for the Social Group which meets once in a while to help with events such as the very successful Harvest Supper and Quiz night?

We also need parishioners to join the coffee rota for after 9 a.m. Mass at Sacred Heart on Sundays. Please speak to Jenny Malone-Lee email

CAFOD are running an emergency appeal for Afghanistan. In addition to donations, they are also asking for people to email their local MPs with a set of reasonable demands to make things better for Afghan refugees. This can be done automatically by following the link below:

From Clifton Diocese: On Saturday 25 September we are looking to draw together catechists from around our diocese, as well as those involved in parish formation and evangelisation, as a way of offering an opportunity for conversation and formation, focusing on family catechesis. David Wells and Ingrid La Trobe will help us to reflect on the role of parents in catechesis and give catechists the confidence to enable them to be the first teachers of their children's faith. The day will take place at St. John the Baptist parish centre, Trowbridge, and will start at 11am and finish around 4pm. Refreshments will be provided from 10.30am, we ask for catechists to bring a packed lunch. Numbers will be limited for the day so please ask your parishioners to register. They can register through this email: adult.education@cliftondiocese.com.

Father Joe Duggan RIP

Joseph ("Joe") Duggan was born on 30th May 1944 in Liverpool, and educated at St Francis Xavier's school in the city. He joined the novitiate in Roehampton in 1961 at the age of 17. During his time as a novice the novitiate moved to Harlaxton, and he took his First Vows there on 8th September 1963. After three years of philosophy at Heythrop in Oxfordshire, he moved to Campion Hall to study for an MA in physics, then on to Wimbledon College to teach for a year's regency. Next he went to Heythrop in London for a BD in theology, after which he was ordained in his home parish in Liverpool in 1973. There followed a diploma in pastoral theology, again at Heythrop. After two years on the parish staff at St Ignatius, Stamford Hill, he made his tertianship at St Beuno's under Michael Ivens and Gerry W Hughes. Between 1977 and 1983 he worked in a number of parishes: St Michael and St John the Evangelist in Clitheroe, the Holy Name in Manchester, St Wilfrid's, Preston, and St Ignatius, Stamford Hill, before moving to St George's Worcester, where he stayed for seven years. It was at Clitheroe that he began to edit the Province Calendar, a job that he kept for much of the rest of his life. During those years he also represented the Province at European meetings of Jesuits involved in the charismatic renewal. After a short sabbatical, and a six-month supply in Wimbledon, he was sent to Corpus Christi, Boscombe, where he stayed until 1998, being Superior of the community from 1993. Another sabbatical, this time in Brussels, followed, after which he was appointed as parish priest in Tisbury, a position that he held until 2003. That year he became the Province's "auditor of houses", living initially in Stamford Hill and then at Southwell House, before combining that job with being parish priest in Clitheroe. In 2008 he joined the parish staff in Preston, becoming parish priest there two years later. In 2014 he moved to Manchester, and then in 2016 on to SFX in Liverpool, where he stayed until his death.

The little obituary that goes round the Province was delayed for various reasons. These are just facts and figures but you might like to have them for the parish. I will most probably be asked to write a much longer obituary for our Province journal of record. We like to collect a few reminiscences from people who knew the deceased. Is there anyone in the parish who might be able to provide a few sentences about Joe's time in Tisbury?

Best wishes Michael Barnes SJ

(Please let Father Robert know of reminiscences so that he can send them on)
