Spiritual Communion – Prayer of St Alphonsus

My Jesus,

I believe that you are present in this Holy Sacrament of the altar.

I love you above all things and I passionately desire to receive you into my soul.

Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my soul so that I may unite myself wholly to you now and forever. Amen.

You can find this and other prayers on p. 679 of your CTS New Sunday Missal

The writer and broadcaster Joanna Bogle is leading two special walks to celebrate the life and message of St John Henry Newman.

Wednesday August 19th meet 6pm Walk across London Bridge - with its story of St Olaf and Viking battles - to the birthplace of St John Henry Newman in the City.Church of the Most Precious Blood, O'Meara Street, London SE1 1TD (nearest tube/overground London Bridge).

Wednesday August 26th meet 6pm - Visit Richmond Palace and its links with Henry VIII etc - and walk along the river to St John Henry Newman's childhood home at Ham.

Meet at St Elizabeth's Church, The Vineyard, Richmond TW10 6AQ. (Nearest tube/overground: Richmond). We'll visit Richmond Palace and its links with Henry VIII etc - and walk along the river to St John Henry Newman's childhood home at Ham.

The group will be socially-distanced as they walk. All are welcome - no need to book, just turn up!

A donation of £5 is suggested. More information: www.catholichistorywalks.com

God has created me to do Him some definite service;
He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another.
I have my mission - I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next.
I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons.
He has not created me for naught. I shall do good, I shall do His work;
I shall be a preacher of Truth in my own place, while not intending it, if I do but keep His commandments and serve Him in my calling.
Therefore, my God, I will put myself without reserve into your hands.

Saint John Henry, Cardinal Newman
