Calling readers for Sacred Heart Sunday Masses: Please get in touch with Susie to be on a new rota. Let her know if you wish to continue and new readers always welcome.

sblundell22@gmail.com or 07957 387652

Eucharistic Ministers: This will not be starting yet but Susie would like to know who is coming back to this ministry. Anyone who wants to know what is involved in helping as a eucharistic minister should talk to Fr Robert.

Bishop Declan invites us all to participate in praying a Novena to the Holy Spirit beginning this week on Thursday 13 May (Feast of the Ascension). Each of the nine days will focus on a different fruit of the Spirit. Each day a video prayer resource with music, scripture, personal reflection and prayer will appear on the Diocesan website. You can access the prayer resource for the Novena: <https://cliftondiocese.com/novena>
We hope as many people will join us in praying the Novena as we continue to 'Dare to Dream' and invite the Holy Spirit to bless our diocese as we move forward.

LGBT+ Mass, Sunday 16th May at 3.00 p.m. St Nicholas of Tolentino Church, Easton, Bristol BS5 0RE <https://tolentino.org.uk/>

Pope Francis has invited Catholics and Marian Shrines around the world to dedicate the month of May to a marathon of prayer for an end to the Covid-19 pandemic. The initiative involves 30 Marian Shrines around the world. Each day Vatican News broadcast leads the recitation of the Rosary at 6pm Rome time from the various Shrines taking part in the initiative. The Pope will close the initiative on 31 May with another specially-broadcast Rosary.

A special concert inspired by the life and writings of Saint John Henry Newman will take place at 7 p.m. on Thursday 10th June at Farm Street Jesuit Church of the Immaculate Conception. The concert will be livestreamed on Classic FM's Facebook page and available on demand for a month afterwards. It will feature two world premieres by Sir James MacMillan and Will Todd which draw on the words of Newman's meditation "God has created me to do Him some definite service"

St Dunstan 909-988 Dunstan was born near Glastonbury and educated at the Abbey. After ordination as priest, he returned to Glastonbury briefly, but was soon called to court. He was appointed Abbot of Glastonbury and set about restoring monastic life which had been almost extinguished under Danish invasions. He was exiled to Ghent, recalled by King Edgar; he became successively Bishop of Worcester and London and then Archbishop of Canterbury.

*.... I shall bow, in humble Adoration,
And then proclaim, "My God, How Great Thou Art!"*
