Spiritual Communion – Prayer of St Alphonsus

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present in this Holy Sacrament of the altar.
I love you above all things and I passionately desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my soul so that I may unite myself wholly to you now and forever. Amen.

PRAYERS: for our Year 6 at Wardour School as they leave next week; for all those in need; for the seafarers; for the kindly helpers in all sorts of areas of our lives; for those alone, the worried, for our families and those who are unwell. Amongst our parishioners, Nick Weeks, John Bell in Southampton Hospital, Mary Maidment at Avonbourne, Mary MacDermot and Elizabeth Croft.

Plants for Sale: all takings to Mary's Meals. We have alstroemerias in flower, tiger lilies not yet in flower, some herbs, a black hollyhock and other plants. Please contact Mike and Liz Montgomery on 01747 828403 to arrange a time. We are right beside the Forester pub in Donhead St Andrew.

Due to unavoidable circumstances, some people have dropped out of the pilgrimage to Walsingham on 5th October, travelling by coach and staying overnight, so there are now up to 8 vacancies. If you would like to come, the cost would be approximately £112 to include travel board, dinner, breakfast and picnic lunch at the Catholic Shrine after Mass. this would be an excellent way to emerge from the pandemic, especially in this year of Rededication of England as the Dowry of Mary. Please phone Veronica Hodges at 01747 870254.

From Father Robert: Boris Johnson's injunction that we should STAY ALERT took me back to childhood and a very happy, if unachieving, membership of a Wolf Cub Pack (=Cub Scouts), where much of the programme was based on Rudyard (erstwhile Tisbury resident) Kipling's Jungle Books. The young Cub, as in Kipling's first volume, had to learn to be vigilant if it was to survive. The opening ceremony each week included squatting with two fingers raised on each side of the head, like a wolf cub's pricked-up ears, learning to stay alert to danger. Things have changed a bit since those days, but today's Cub Scouts are still trained to keep alert, usually through games and learning new skills.

So what about today, for those who were never Cub Scouts (same with Brownie Guides), and all who have left childish things behind? Well, STAY ALERT reminded me of the Lord's injunction to his disciples: 'you too must stand ready because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.' (Matthew 24 v 42, 44). Odd as it may sound, the Lord promised to return, and his people are still waiting. So much for the Scout motto, 'Be prepared'. And how should we do that? Well, last week's clean hands etc would be a good start (and some garments - in case you get run over?) because cleanliness has to be not only on the outside, but on the inside. For that we have the sacrament of Reconciliation or Confession (lock-down now allows us to restart using this Sacrament - on request); but not only the formal ritual, for our daily prayers should include an examination of conscience. So, WASH YOUR HANDS, spiritual or otherwise, regularly. And STAY ALERT.

What about KEEP YOUR DISTANCE, keep out of harm's way? Christians try to avoid occasions of sin, not because all of them are particularly wrong, but because eventually we know we will get hurt. And see if our Prime Minister offers any useful advice this week. RM

Sea Sunday 12th July:

Father's usual blessing of the hats for Apostleship of the Sea will be delayed this year. KEEP KNITTING!

Sea Sunday 2020 postponed

In the light of the uncertainty posed by Covid-19, the Catholic Bishops of England and Wales have decided to postpone Sea Sunday 2020 from July 12 to December. The date has not yet been finalised, but it is likely to be either Sunday 13 or Sunday 20 December. The income generated from Sea Sunday is crucial in maintaining support for seafarers and fishers and we are very grateful that the Bishops have found a way to rearrange Sea Sunday. Wonderful Christian history and stories of pilgrimage

Lord our God, we offer you all we are, all we have and all we do.
We give thanks to you for our lives and our loved ones.
We thank you for all those whose names will come to us today,
those in our families, our church and our neighbourhood who share with us the love you have for all of us.
Open our minds and hearts so that we may glimpse the presence of your Spirit in the things that we enjoy at this time, and at the end of our walk today,
may our hearts be full of gratitude for what you've shown us.
We make our prayer through Christ the Lord, Amen.
