INTERNATIONAL MASS THANK-YOU to all those who came along. Particular thanks to St Joseph's School for the great welcome and fantastic venue and to all those involved in the organising and arranging this wonderful event. Many people contributed on the evening itself - providing music, helping out in various ways, welcoming, preparing and bringing food, serving food and drinks and clearing up at the end. A recording of the Mass and lots of wonderful photos are available on our website <https://salisburycatholics.org/international-mass> Photos of this event and a write-up also feature in this week's "Salisbury Journal".

SECOND COLLECTION is for World Mission Sunday. The Association for the Propagation of the Faith (APF) assists each and every one of the Catholic Church's 1,062 mission dioceses and territories to provide pastoral care and preach the Gospel effectively. The APF enables its supporters to live out their own missionary vocation and to take an active part in the universal mission of the Church.

On Saturday 10 November there will be a gathering at St Brendan's College, Brislington, (10.15am to 3pm) with an inspirational speaker, David Wells, who will help us reflect upon Encounter with the Lord in Prayer. The Year of Prayer will begin on the first Sunday of Advent and this day will introduce us to the resources that will be available from the end of November. All are welcome, please let the Parish Office know if you plan to attend, and if so please take a packed lunch. In addition, on Tuesday 27 November at 7pm in our Cathedral, Bishop Declan invites all parishes and communities to join him at a celebration of Evening Prayer during which he will present to each parish, community and school the resources for the Year of Prayer. We are looking for fancy goods, bottles, sweets, Christmas decorations, toys and prizes for the raffle. We depend on your donations, so please be generous. We will be selling raffle tickets during the next few weeks at all churches. As well as raising much needed funds for building, this is a great social occasion. We are happy to pick up any donations if transport is difficult. (phone Jane 744332 or jabez@waitrose.com).

HOLY REDEEMER meeting takes place on Wednesday 31 October at 7pm in the hall. All welcome to attend.

TRAIDCRAFT STALL will take place after the 9am Mass on Sunday 21 October. Sadly, Traidcraft have informed us that in the current economic climate they could be forced to cease business by the end of 2018 unless a solution can be found in the coming month. It is vitally important to have a very good autumn season if they are to continue and have appealed for people to buy as much as possible from Traidcraft and perhaps to order some of their Christmas cards and presents from their catalogue (catalogues are available on our stall). It will be devastating for third world producers and all the staff in Gateshead if Traidcraft cease trading.

FAIRTRADE ADVENT CALENDARS - very attractive - £3.99 each, including 24 page activity book, 24 chocolate shapes - we are currently taking orders for these as we need to be sure of selling them. If you order them at our stall this Sunday, we will have them available at our November stall, or call Jenny or Howard 336207 to order.

ST GREGORY'S - Christmas cards, Advent candles & calendars diaries and gifts for sale from this weekend.

HOPE AND FRIENDSHIP This group is for those who are bereaved or suffering loss, meets on Monday 22 October at 11am in St Osmund's Parish Rooms. Call the Parish office for further information.

MY GENERATION There will be a two course 'Fish 'n' Chip lunch on Wednesday 24 October at 12.30pm. Cost

WEBSITE WORKSHOPS!

More and more information about our parish life is now featuring on our website. It is a wonderful and easy-to-use repository of information, reports and features about the life of our parish and our Catholic faith.

There is a photo gallery, a blog, the parish diary and calendar and much, much more.

It is also the place where you can access our new Church TV which enables you to view all of our Sunday Masses (from all of our churches) and other celebrations.

We want to make sure that everyone is included Not everyone finds the internet easy. Not everyone has access to the internet in their homes. If you are one of these people then we would like to invite you to stay behind after Mass for a tour of our website. Over a cup of tea and a biscuit, we will show you the main features of the website and how to get the best out of it. Even if you never intend to access it yourself, you will, at the very least, have seen the website and Church TV and understand better what you read and hear about in our newsletter or at Mass.

We will be holding these workshops at the following times and places. Please come and join us.

PRAYER INTENTIONS

POPE FRANCIS MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTION The Holy Father calls us this month to pray specifically for the Church by renewing the invitation to everyone to pray the Rosary every day during October ending with the antiphon "We fly to thy patronage" and the Prayer to St Michael the Archangel. Video is on our website: <https://salisburycatholics.org/pope-francis>

CLIFTON DIOCESE We pray for the parish community of St Bonaventure, Bishopston, Bristol.

SALISBURY CHURCHES TOGETHER We pray for United Reformed Church.

PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS all those who are sick and in hospital, all those who have died recently including Dominic Elliott and those whose anniversaries occur at this time. May they rest in peace.

POPE FRANCIS - CATECHESIS ON THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

Dear brothers and sisters: In our continuing catechesis on the Ten Commandments, we now consider the injunction against killing. We could say that every evil is caused by a disregard for life. Assaults upon life occur in many situations, from war and exploitation to the suppression of the vulnerable, elderly and unborn. Ultimately it is fear that gives rise to the rejection of life. To welcome the other, however, challenges such fear. We see the attitude that welcomes rather than rejects life in the heart-rending concern of parents for a sick child. Their desire to protect and save is a sign of life's precious value, seen above all in those who suffer, who are in fact God's gift, and who help us to grow in his love. God's love is the only authentic measure of life, whose secret is revealed by Jesus, who embraced the rejected, weak, poor and sick throughout his life and upon the cross. In the midst of our weaknesses, Christ seeks our hearts in order to reveal to us the joy of love. As the Gospel reminds us, "God so loved the world that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life" (Jn 3:16).

We turn now to the fifth: "You shall not kill", which reveals how precious human life is in God's eyes; we are made in his image out of his infinitive love for us. But we learn that there are other ways of "killing" a person: anger, insult, scorn and indifference towards others can kill, perhaps not their physical bodies, but rather the unseen spirit within them. Although the opposite of killing might seem to be not killing, that is only a first step towards loving. We need to do the opposite of what Cain did to Abel: we are each other's keepers, protectors and guardians. For this we need Christ's love and mercy. The commandment not to kill is a call to love and to mercy, a call to live according to the life of the Lord Jesus, who gave us life by rising to life; this life is the Father's gift to each of us.

YEAR OF MISSION - 29th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus, in Mark's Gospel, reveals himself as the one who serves, as the one who reaches out in tenderness, as the one who lowers himself and empties himself out of love for others. It's Jesus' words and his actions that reveal to the disciples the need, not so much to be the first or the greatest or the most powerful or the best or the most successful, but to encounter God in others and serve God, love God, in them. The disciples find that a hard lesson to learn but they have Jesus, not just to instruct them, but to show them. The cross reveals that service and that emptying in action. If we want to be considered great it's not because we have trampled on everyone to get where we feel we need to be; it's that we have loved and loved and loved...giving everything.
