NOVEMBER PRAYERS FOR THE DEAD November is the month when we traditionally pray for the Holy Souls in Purgatory. It is good to pray for the dead, especially for our loved ones (*cf. Please write down the names of your deceased relatives and friends and place it in the basket. We will have a weekly Mass for the Holy Souls, during which the Mass will be offered for all those named on the lists.

The Bazaar depends on our donations, so please be generous. We are selling raffle tickets after Mass at all churches. As well as raising much needed funds for building work in the parish, it is a chance to get together and socialise so we encourage you to come along. We are happy to pick up any donations if it is difficult to get them to St Gregory's (phone Jane 744332 or jabez@waitrose.com) For those who are helping with the bazaar we are meeting at St Gregory's Hall at 2pm on the Saturday to set up and the hall will be open for anybody who wants to bring any donations.

HEALING PRAYER MINISTRY

18 November - After Mass at 9am St Osmund's

1 December - After 6pm Mass at Holy Redeemer

ADVENT TALK SERIES - 7pm each Monday from 26 November - St Osmund's Parish Rooms & Church

The National Eucharistic Congress, held in Liverpool earlier this year called the Catholic Church of England and Wales to refocus on the real presence of Christ in the Most Blessed Sacrament and of the practice of Adoration in particular. In addition to this, our Diocese of Clifton will soon be entering a Year of Prayer. Both of these important events seem to be calling us to focus upon that central tenet of our Catholic faith - the Eucharist. It is always good to remind ourselves of Catholic teaching on the Eucharist and to restore and refresh our faith in its power and mystery and so, during Advent, we will be running a series of short talks entitled 'Presence: The Mystery of the Eucharist'.

This is an excellent video series produced by the Augustine Institute - each evening we will watch the short (approx. 30min) video together in the Parish Rooms, engage in some table discussion followed by a short time of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in St Osmund's Church. More details to follow - please put the dates (26 Nov, 3,10 & 17 Dec) in your diary. This series will be especially appropriate for all Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and I would be grateful to see as many as possible attending - Fr Michael

Outreach Volunteers - Christmas Deliveries - MORE VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Thanks to all the new volunteers who have stepped forward - we particularly need volunteers from the Wilton and Devizes Road area as this is the least well-covered. Each volunteer delivers to addresses near to their own home and, in this way, volunteering is a wonderful way to meet some of your Catholic neighbours. It is also a really important way that we reach out to the elderly and housebound or those who feel at the margins of our parish community or who can only get to church occasionally.

Deliveries can be made during the day or the evening during a two-week time period to suit your own circumstances. To volunteer or if you have any questions, please contact Caroline on 502503 or email outreach@salisburycatholics.org Current volunteers will be contacted during the forthcoming weeks by email - please look out for this communication. I will be organising the lists in this coming week so please don't delay if you are considering joining in.

What's on our Church TV?

Our Church TV continues to provide a wonderful service to those who cannot get to Mass and for those who have family and friends far and wide. Here's a summary of what's on:

All our Services at St Osmund's are streamed live and in addition all Sunday Masses are also recorded INCLUDING the Polish Mass (second Sunday of the Month) which will be live at 4 pm this Sunday and also recorded. POPE FRANCIS - CATECHESIS ON THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

Dear brothers and sisters: In our continuing catechesis on the Ten Commandments, we now turn to the seventh commandment: "You shall not steal". This commandment deals specifically with theft and with respect for the property of others. Yet it also invites us to consider, in the light of faith and the Church's social doctrine, that the goods of creation are destined for the entire human race. The universal destination of goods does not detract from the right to private property, but sets that right in proper perspective. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that "the ownership of any property makes its holder a steward of Providence, with the task of making it fruitful and communicating its benefits to others" (CCC 2404). Our world has sufficient resources to meet the primary needs of all its inhabitants, yet so many members of our human family continue to suffer extreme want and even starvation for the lack of sound economic decisions inspired by solidarity and justice. The example of Christ, who, though rich became poor for our sake (cf. 2 Cor 8:9), reveals the true meaning and purpose of all wealth: it stands at the service of love, freedom and human dignity.

YEAR OF MISSION - 32nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This is such a beautiful narrative from Mark, the Jesus who notices even the little things. The poor widow with her two tiny coins is an echo of discipleship and the challenge that comes with following Jesus but she's also a little glimpse of what is to come – Christ echoes her gift and gives himself totally and completely, abandoning himself as gift to rely on God alone. Everything that he has to give is given to the Father just as the widow abandons herself onto Providence. The cross which is growing clearer on the horizon for Jesus is that call to give everything. Jesus invites us to do the same in our discipleship: to hold nothing back and to rely on God's goodness, to abandon ourselves upon him in the faith and the trust that with him we will have everything we need.
