Spiritual Communion – Prayer of St Alphonsus

My Jesus,

I believe that you are present in this Holy Sacrament of the altar.

I love you above all things and I passionately desire to receive you into my soul.

Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my soul so that I may unite myself wholly to you now and forever.

Amen.

PRAYERS: to all those suffering; to the wonderful helpers in all sorts of areas of our lives; to the lonely, to all those who are unwell. Please pray for the soul of Patricia Talbot who died early on Good Friday morning RIP and for the soul of Jim Bell, who died on Holy Saturday RIP

Volunteers/help needed? For anyone who would like any sort of assistance, ranging from a telephone call to help with food shopping and delivering, Michael Hodges is co-ordinating a group of volunteers in the Parish.

Contact him on: 01747 870254 and email michael.jeremyhodes@gmail.com

Julia Anderson, our parish representative has been organising a Bring and Buy Sale for 24th April for Apostleship of the Sea. Sadly, this won't happen until much later in the year. In the meantime, welfare services to seafarers and fishers continue to be active in the UK and overseas during this Coronavirus pandemic. Julia says that their donations are down a lot now and so if anyone would like to donate, please go on line <https://www.apostleshipofthesea.org.uk/ways-donate> If you wished to (anonymously) email the amount you have donated, Julia could build up a total of our Parish generosity! Just email catechist and your total will be forwarded to her.

Knitting group for AoS: How is everyone getting on? Last count was 50 hats and 5 balaclavas. We look forward to counting them all together later this year.

For children: do look at St Osmund's link here for some short films – St Joseph is there for May 1st and many others: <https://salisburycatholics.org/childrens-corner>

This week I have been on virtual retreat at Walsingham. While the talks have been very helpful, and while sharing in mass online is far better than no Mass, the real surprise has been the joy I find in Morning and Evening prayer. As some of you will know to your pain, I am practically tone deaf. Yet I can join with the 4 clergy who sing the Office in the privacy of my study, and no one hears my off notes – apart from God, who attends to the intentions of my heart and not to the caterwauling.

The psalms that Jesus offered in the lonely places of Israel, and now sung by these priests in the shrine of our Lady in Norfolk, for some reason bring solace to my soul and joy to my heart. And we end by singing Regina Coeli to our dear Mother.

If you want a bit of rhythm to your day, try it at www.walsingham.org.uk 830 am and 5pm – and you can download the prayers from universalis.com Deacon Michael

Prayer to Combat the Coronavirus Pandemic

Most Merciful God,
We come to You in our weakness.
We come to You in our fear.
We come to You with trust.
For You alone are our hope.
We place before You the disease present in our world.
We turn to You in our time of need.
Bring wisdom to doctors.
Give understanding to scientists.
Endow caregivers with compassion and generosity.
Bring healing to those who are ill.
Protect those who are most at risk.
Give comfort to those who have lost a loved one.
Welcome those who have died into Your Eternal Home.
Stabilise our communities.
Unite us in our compassion.
Remove all fear from our hearts.
Fill us with confidence in Your care.
Jesus, I trust in You.
Jesus, I trust in You.
Jesus, I trust in You.
Amen.
