ADVENT WEEK 4 (A) & CHRISTMAS

From Father Anthony

I woke very early: it was bitterly cold. Looking out into the darkness I could see the silver sheen of frost on the lawn. Stars twinkled and moonlight bathed the rooftops in spectral light. It was very quiet but too early for tea! So, I sat huddled in the duvet and began to pray. Two hours later I woke up!... with a pain in my neck! Sunlight spilled through the window and birdsong heralded the new day. I made tea trying to remember the dream I'd had... when I should have been praying!

'When Joseph woke'... The aim of spiritual practice is to wake up. Spiritually, Joseph represents intuitive wisdom; he intuitively understands the spiritual reality behind the natural world. It is this wisdom that helps us to discern (waken to) God's will for us... 'he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home'. There is evidence that the word wife guné (γυνή), derives from ginomai (γίνομαι), which means to become, to come into being. Our intuitive wisdom (Joseph) allows something to come into being within (take home). And this is Mary... who represents the spiritual Soul. God wants us to waken to the life of soul within.

For this we must listen to the angel. Angel means messenger. Everything in the world is 'sending out a message', an angelic force. To understand it we must develop our spiritual faculties through prayer and spiritual practice. How often have we felt that something does not feel right, we feel uncomfortable, something is grating? On the surface everything looks normal... but we do not feel right about it. Intuition is trying to tell us something; it is sending out a message. Through practice we learn to receive the message through and from our intuition. It is light in the darkness... an Advent. Life is communicating messages (angelic forces) all the time. Hence the emphasis on listening not just with our ears but with our soul; so as to hear, intuit, feel what it is that God is commanding us to do. The word command, prostássō (προστάσσω) means to emphasise the intention of the one assigning (commanding). It means to intuit what God wants of us; it means, with Angelus Silesius, that, 'Christ could be born a thousand times in Galilee - but all in vain until He is born in (you) and me'.

A friend of mine had emergency major surgery this year and was lucky to escape with her life. You can imagine the impact... suffering, confusion and anguish. But, it also brought new insights and a really strong compassion for those who suffer. Recovery will take time; but recover she will and to a stronger more fulsome life. Over the last three years we have all undergone a form of trauma, what with illness, lockdowns, loss of loved ones and the disruption to a way of life we perhaps thought immutable. Just as we shake a blanket to get rid of the dust so the last few years have shaken us out of comforts and certainties. It will take time to recover... but recover we will!

There is something positive in every event and we must find it. Why? So as to pass it on. The merger of our three parishes, for example, might seem to some a sign of demise. Is it? Or, is it a sign urging us to regroup, understand and refresh... not lament. Just as we might regret the passing of a season we also smile, knowing it will come back again. You and I and the church we must sustain and grow will come back firm and strong... maybe in a different form but, nevertheless, firm and strong. Let's learn from the past and then, let it go. Similarly, we should not fear or be anxious about the future... that's equivalent to letting what we don't know about – events which have not and might not happen - have power over us. If we accept and learn from the past: if we accept that the Divine Nature will be found in future events; then, we can begin to rest in the present moment, rise above it and find the world of spirit. Here we will be given the vision and understanding of what to do now: now is where we heal the past in the present to release the future! We have a bright future; let's make it so.

Welcome to Father Joseph whom, against all the odds in a time of fewer priests, we are so blessed to have with us. Welcome to all those Baptised this year. Congratulations to our young people who we Confirmed this year and to all our couples who were Married. We continue to pray for those suffering from any kind of illness that full health will be restored. We pray especially for the bereaved and those whom we miss and who now rest in the beloved arms of the Lord. And... 'thank you' to all those, without whom, the day to day running of our parish simply would not happen. You often work behind the scenes, unnoticed and often without thanks. So, 'Thank You'.

On behalf of Fr Jonathan, Fr Joseph, Deacon John P, Deacon Steve, Deacon John D and myself, I wish you a lovely Christmas and a Holy, Peaceful New Year.

Love and prayers,
Fr Anthony

Sunday Homily from Bishop Robert Barron Many people today hold that time is meaningless; it is just one thing after another. As we see in the readings for the fourth Sunday of Advent the Bible does not agree, time has a trajectory; it moves toward its fulfilment in Christ, who is Emmanuel 'God with us'. To listen and watch, click on the 'Sunday Homily' button on our homepage or click here.
